

Instructor: Kun-Sung Chung

Kun-Sung Chung is a full-time freelance illustrator specializing in vector Illustration. He has a BA in Graphic Design from Kookmin University in Seoul, Korea. After immigrating to Canada, he studied Illustration at OCAD University, graduating in 2001. Since then his projects have been seen in diverse media formats. His work has included everything from Newspaper Editorials, Packaging, Book Covers to Storyboards for TV commercials. He has worked with clients in various countries for variety of different projects. His clean and modern illustration aesthetics combined with a Graphic Design background is the foundation for much of his work.