

Instructor: Otino Corsano

Otino Corsano is a New Genres artist as he explores areas of meaning production in a variety of media. He graduated from OCA (now OCAD University) in 1992. At the University of Toronto, Corsano studied with pioneer video artist Colin Campbell and earned a Honours BA in 1997, specializing in Visual Art Studies. He moved to Los Angeles to attend Otis College of Art and Design, completing an MFA graduate degree in 2000. Corsano has taught at the University of Toronto and at OCAD University for two decades, first in the Faculty of Design, then transitioning to the School of Continuing Studies in 2012. There Corsano lead the development, design, and delivery of Adobe CC courses, winning a Teaching Award in 2017. In 2019, he completed the Differentiated Instruction Made Practical course at Harvard Graduate School of Education. As a professional artist, Corsano exhibited extensively in Toronto and abroad. He established Ocean Course Films as a contemporary art entity producing his collaborative work alongside commercial directors, actors, choreographers, contemporary dancers, sound engineers, editors, and composers.